

United States District Court Northern District of Iowa

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

www.ianp.uscourts.gov

Additional Information:

- Please review all additional information provided before applying.
- The U.S. Probation Office is not authorized to reimburse candidates for interview or relocation expenses.
- This position requires mandatory electronic funds transfer for payment of net pay.
- Only applicants who are selected for an interview will be contacted regarding their application status.
- Providing false statements or omitting information on application materials or during the interview process may result in non-selection, withdrawal of a job offers, or dismissal after employment.
- All information provided by candidates and applicants is subject to verification, including criminal history record checks. The U.S. Probation Office reserves the right to contact references, former employers, and subordinates.
- The U.S. Probation Office reserves the right to withdrawal this announcement without prior notice to applicants. More than one position could be filled from this posting. If a subsequent vacancy of the same position becomes available within a reasonable time of the original announcement, the U.S. Probation Office may elect to select a candidate from the original pool of qualified applicants.
- All court employees are required to adhere to the Code of Conduct for Judicial Employees which is provided to each employee and is available online: <https://www.uscourts.gov/rules-policies/judiciary-policies/code-conduct/code-conduct-judicial-employees>.

The Northern District of Iowa is an Equal Opportunity Employer